12th April 2023

INTERNATIONAL

1) 'Tulsi Ghat Restoration Project'

- During his three-day visit to Uganda's Kampala, External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar launched the 'Tulsi Ghat Restoration Project' in Varanasi. He commended the Overseas Friends of BJP-Uganda for their efforts to enhance the aesthetic appeal of the oldest inhabited city in the world. Uganda has been selected to chair the Non-Aligned Movement for the period of 2022 to 2025 on behalf of Africa.
- The chairmanship of the movement rotates every three years during summit conferences and is assisted by both the previous and incoming chairs, representing the movement's past, present, and future.
- During his visit to Uganda, S. Jaishankar will hold delegation-level discussions with his Ugandan counterpart to explore opportunities for strengthening bilateral relations between the two nations. Additionally, he is expected to meet with other Ministers and call on the country's leadership.

4) India's gold imports

- India's gold imports have declined by about 30% to $31.8 billion during April-February 2023, compared to the same period in the previous year, according to data from the country's commerce ministry.
- The decline in gold imports is attributed to several factors, including high customs duty and global economic uncertainties.
- The decline in India's gold imports by about 30% to $31.8 billion during April-February 2023 has not helped in narrowing the country's trade deficit, which was estimated at $247.52 billion for the same period, compared to $172.53 billion in the year-ago period. The negative trade balance is a cause for concern for the Indian economy, which is heavily dependent on imports of goods and services.

5) International Monetary Fund

- The International Monetary Fund (IMF) has revised India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth forecast for the financial year 2023-24, lowering it by 20 basis points to 5.9 percent.
- This latest forecast is slightly below the Reserve Bank of India's projection of 6.4 percent. Despite the downward revision, India is still projected to be the fastest-growing major economy in the world.
