Biden signs executive order to curb unlawful border crossings by immigrants

- US President Joe Biden signed off on an executive order to "gain control" of the southern border with Mexico, as he looks to present a tougher stance on immigration ahead of November's US election.
- The long-expected sweeping measures include a temporary closure of the border whenever arrests of illegal migrants by US Border Patrol exceed 2,500 per day.
- Given current figures, the measure will therefore come into immediate effect and will remain in place until the number of apprehensions drops back to below 1,500 per day.
- The executive order also facilitates a swifter deportation of illegal migrants back to Mexico.
- Unaccompanied minors are not expected to be covered by the new rules and migrants will still be able to request an appointment to present their asylum application under the planned measure.

Q. The US President Joe Biden signed off on an executive order to curb unlawful border crossings by immigrants of the southern border with which country? Mexico

ISRO Chairman inaugurates HAL facilities, rocket manufacturing capacity gets a boost

- Isro Chairman S Somanath inaugurated state-of-the-art propellant tank production and computer numerical control (CNC) machining facilities at Hindustan Aeronautics Limited's Aerospace Division, boosting rocket manufacturing capacity.
- HAL said the facilities would provide a major boost to Isro's ability to meet its growing production needs, particularly for the Launch Vehicle Mark3, India's heaviest and most powerful rocket.
- Currently, the existing capacity allows for only two LVM3 launches per year, whereas Isro's requirements stand at six launches annually.
- The facilities will address this gap, enabling HAL to manufacture enough critical components to support the production of six LVM3 rockets per year.
- The propellant tank production facility will specialise in the manufacturing of high-performance fuel and oxidiser tanks, critical components for the LVM3 launch vehicle of size four metre in diameter and up to 15 metre in length.
- The machining facility houses advanced CNC machines for handling high-precision fabrication of 4.5 metre class rings and propellant tank domes of LVM3.

Q. ISRO inaugurated state-of-the-art propellant tank production and Computer Numerical Control (CNC) machining facilities at the Aerospace Division of _____.
