1) Pakistan has made the decision to surrender its Hajj quota to Saudi Arabia

- For the first time in 75 years, Pakistan has made the decision to surrender its Hajj quota to Saudi Arabia.
- This move was prompted by the rising inflation in the country, which has caused thousands of Pakistanis to forgo the pilgrimage this year.
- In total, Pakistan has returned 8,000 unused seats, which will save the government a considerable amount of money totalling $24 million.

2) The Supreme Court of Sri Lanka

- The Supreme Court of Sri Lanka has approved a bill seeking to decriminalize homosexuality, according to the Speaker of Parliament, in a move welcomed by LGBTQ+ rights campaigners.
- Under current laws, homosexuality is punishable by imprisonment and fines, but activists have long campaigned for change.
- After hearing submissions from both sides, the Supreme Court ruled that the proposed legislation was not unconstitutional.

3) India has decided to extend a $1 billion credit line to Sri Lanka

- In the midst of an economic crisis, India has decided to extend a $1 billion credit line to Sri Lanka for another year, providing the much-needed funds to pay for essential imports.
- The credit line is part of the $4 billion emergency assistance extended by India to Sri Lanka during its peak crisis time last year.
- In April last year, Sri Lanka's reserves dropped to record lows, triggering its worst financial crisis since its independence from Britain in 1948. The country struggled to pay for essential imports such as fuel, cooking gas, and medicine, and defaulted on its foreign debt.
